Passover: The Season of our Redemption

On Nisan 14 (March 29) we will celebrate Passover. It is a time to remember our deliverance – a time to recall our rescue from Pharaoh and Egyptian slavery. Passover is a time to remember what God has done for the Jewish people and for those who sojourned with them out of Egypt. He led the people out of Egypt “with an outstretched arm and a mighty hand.”

On March 29, at 6 p.m., we will share the experience of this journey once again as we experience God’s redemption. We will see how Yeshua (Jesus), as the Lamb of God, secured for us the forgiveness from our sins which separate us from our Loving Father. Join us for this experience by purchasing your tickets for this year’s Passover Seder before March 19. Call 316-744-7470 today.
